¹ The source for all figures is listed in the final section of this report.

² Throughout this report, "faculty" refers only to tenured and tenure-track faculty.

³ Throughout this report, percentage figures are percent female out of total in each category.

⁴ Includes 101 departments within colleges, the four regional campuses, the colleges of Dentistry, Law, Optometry, Pharmacy, and Social Work, University Libraries, ATI and OSU Extension. The decrease in the number of departments compared to the 1993-94 status report is a result of academic restructuring. Changes which took effect through June 30, 1995, are included.

⁵ Figures for Distinguished Service, Honorary Degrees, and Commencement Speakers include summer/autumn 1994 and winter/spring 1995.

⁶ Based on snapshot of regular university employees paid in October 1994 and the tenure database.

⁷ Includes Director of University Libraries.

⁸ Includes two female and one male "Assistant Directors" in University Libraries.

⁹ Includes two non-voting student members, one of whom is female.

¹⁰ Specifies that student has not earned Master's nor has accumulated more than 50 hours.

¹¹ Specifies that student has earned Master's or has accumulated 51 hours or more.
