President and Provost's Leadership Institute Application for Class of 2021-2022

Important note: Prior to filling out the application below, please prepare your answer to the essay question and have your external files available for upload. You cannot save an incomplete application and return later. You must input all the required information at one time; your information will only be saved when you click on the final submit button at the bottom of the page.

If you need to access this application in another format, please contact womensplace@osu.edu. The President & Provost's Leadership Institute (PPLI) will include accommodations for individuals with disabilities; requests for accommodations during the program can be made when applicants are accepted for participation.

In addition to completing the form below, applicants must upload a letter of interest and brief CV. The letter of support must be submitted by the recommender, not by the applicant. Please direct your recommender to provide a letter of support to womensplace@osu.edu.

All application materials, including letters of support, are due by April 30, 2021 at 5:00 pm EST.

Application materials are available to review committee only and are otherwise kept confidential.*

How did you become aware of the President & Provost's Leadership Institute?

Successful participants in PPLI are often people who have an interest in how the university works beyond the scope of their unit. Please share 1-2 ways that you have aimed to learn more about the resources, structural organization, opportunities and challenges of your unit or the university. (Common examples include learning more by serving on university-level committees, attending town halls, reading/listening to discussions about the landscape of higher education, inquiring about office politics or practices, etc.). How have your observations about the dynamics of your unit or Ohio State impacted your own work?

(Please limit this statement to approximately 500 words/3,300 characters including spaces. If your statement exceeds 3,300 characters, the extra characters will not be included in your submission so please review the statement below before submitting.)

Please upload a 1- to 2-page letter of interest in participating in the program. What motivates you to apply for the program at this point in your career? What are your goals for personal and professional growth and how will PPLI help you meet these goals?

Please upload a current resume or career outline in pdf or doc/docx format.
